

TREY HICKS

Director
USAID Office of Food for Peace

As Director, Trey Hicks brings to USAID's Office of Food for Peace more than a decade of experience in the U.S. Senate, where he served as a Senior Professional Staff Member leading major initiatives advancing government accountability, and specifically oversight of U.S. foreign assistance. Since 2013, Mr. Hicks has been a primary steward of efforts to ensure flexibility in international food assistance within Congress. Prior to that, Mr. Hicks led several major government oversight initiatives for the U.S. Senate's Homeland Security and Governmental Affairs Committee. Mr. Hicks holds an M.A. in Legislative Affairs from George Washington University and a B.A. in Anthropology from University of Houston.
